CAUSTIC COMMENT ON LAW

CALIFORNIA SUPREME COURT FLAYS LEGIS-LATORS IN RENDERING DECISION.

Judges Characterize Acts Made a Felony So Trivial as to Excite Incredulity-Continuous Racing at Oakland Until June 4.

San Francisco, Cal., April 5.—The opinion written by Justice Shaw, and concurred in by Justices Angeliotti and Sloss, recently rendered in the Supreme Court in granting a writ of habeas corpus to W. W. Roberts, charged with violation of the Walker-Otis law in acting as stakeholder of a bet on the outcome of a race at Oakland, was couched in the following language:

"As plainly as words can declare, it (the Walker-Otis law) forbids every person from receiving money bet or wagered by or for any other person upon the result of a horse race or upon any contingent or unknown event. It may require some stretch of credulity to believe that the legislature could have enacted a penal law making an act which may be so trivial a felony, but when a reading of the act discloses that it has been enacted, there can be no misunderstanding of its meaning or effect, if it stands alone and without qualification.

"To constitute a criminal acceptance of such money, under the first clause, it is necessary that it be received for the use of the parties to bet or wager, and not as the due or right of the persons receiving it. He must take it as their property and not as his own to commit a crime. If he receives it in payment of a debt, or as a gift, he commits no offense; even the fact that it is the identical money that had been wagered by the party or participants when he received it is immaterial. In that case he would be no party to the bet or wager which the law intends to denounce as criminal.

"In order to constitute a crime under the first clause, therefore, the person receiving money must do so as custodian or depositary for the parties to the bet or wager, and must act as such for some period. The second clause effects and permits all receiving which is not for gain, hire or reward, and which is not done in some one of the places mentioned by one of the places mentioned by one of the places mentioned by one of inconsistent with the part of finity therefore inconsistent with the part of finity therefore inconsistent with the mentioned by one who uses or occupies such place for that purpose.

"It is therefore inconsistent with the part of the first clause which forbids the receiving of money for the use of parties to a wager, anywhere, under any circumstances. The rule applicable to a statute in which a later clause is found to be irreconcilably inconsistent with a preceding clause is that the later in position acts as a repeal of the former clause, so far as it is inconsistent. Applying this rule, it is clear that the province of the first clause, so far as it related to the mere receiving of money or property bet or wagered, is practically inoperative."

or property bet or wagered, is practically inoperative."

President Thomas H, Williams, of the New California Jockey Club, today announced that racing will continue at Oakland until Saturday, June 4. This announcement does not come as a surprise, as Mr. Williams remarked there might be a further extension when he recently announced the continuance of the season until May 5. Further announcement is made that there will be races six days of each week hereafter, with the exception of next Monday, when there will be an election at Emeryville, the incorporated city within which the track is located. There will be racing next Tuesday.

The decision to prolong the meeting is taken as an evidence of improvement in conditions, especially since the Supreme Court decision in the matter of a stakeholder. The Pacific Jockey Club today granted the Utah Jockey Club dates for a meeting at Salt Lake City from June 6 to July 21, inclusive, making forty days of racing. Following the meetings at Butte and Anaconda there will also be a fall meeting at Salt Lake. President John Condron and Manager Richard Dwyer were in conference with President Williams today, and Mr. Condron will return home to Salt Lake tomorrow.

Betting expert George Smith has issued instructions covering the stakeholding system held legal by the recent Supreme Court decision. "The money should be passed to a third party to be turned over to the winner," he says. "The stakeholder can stand and pass money in the ring, but he must not use any paraphernalia or register any bets. Either or both of the parties who make the bets. Either should be passed to a third party to be turned over to the winner," he says. "The stakeholder can stand and pass money in the ring, but he must not use any paraphernalia or register any bets. Either or both of the parties who make the bets can keep track of their wagers, but the stakeholder must only hold the money. The stakeholder cannot collect a commission or reward for the work. If anyone violates the rules of the jockey club he will be barred from the track. It is the intention of the race track people to keep within the law."

Under instructions given by Superior Judge Brown of Alameda County, Charles Zelinsky has been acquitted of having violated the anti-bookmaking law by a jury. Assistant District Attorney Hynes stated that under the ruling of the Supreme Court on the Walker-Otis law, the acts charged against Zelinsky constituted no crime. Judge Brown agreed with this opinion and ordered the dismissal. The Supreme Court's decision will necessitate the dismissal of all similar race track cases pending in the Alamada County Superior Court. The decision holds that it is no crime for a person to act as stakeholder for wagered money if he receives nothing for this service and in none of the cases now pending is this charged, and there is no evidence that the defendants were paid to act as stakeholders.

There are two other cases, John Doe Schwartz, against whom there are two charges, and "Bob" Ookes.

RECRUIT TO EASTERN RACING.

New York, April 5.—William Hayward, formerly trainer for the Sanfords, has arrived at Belmont Park with a string of six horses, one three-year-old and five two-year-olds, from Sussex, N. J. Four of the atter are colts by Flambeau and were bred at R. McCarter Fotter's Pequest Stud in New Jersey, William W. Lowrey, a glass manufacturer of New York and Baltimore, is the owner of the Flambeau content of the turf, but it would be no surprise to find his colors borne by horses of stake pretensions in the near future. Mr. Lowrey has already secured several well-bred broodmares and a stallion, which are the nucleus of a breeding establishment. It is his intention to get together material of the first order and to this end no pains will be spared.

Following are the names of the Lowrey colts: Peppercotton, br. c. by Flambeau—Lady Trebla. Dissenter, ch. c. by Flambeau—Bissenter, ch. c. by Flambeau—Countess, Rabin the Beau, ch. c. by Flambeau—Waste.

THIRTY LEADING WINNING OWNERS

H. G. Bedwell's horses have won fifty-six races this year, besides having been second in forty-six and third in thirty. All of these money-gaining successes have produced to this leading owner of 1910 the gross sum of $17,020. In this there is a vivid illustration of the decreased earning possibilities of race horses in comparison with a few years back. In 1907 the same measure of success would certainly have brought Bedwell from $25,000 to $30,000. However, Bedwell is safely the leader so far, but F. J. Pons has crept nearer to him than he was a month ago, as also has Barney Schreiber. At present the standing of the thirty leaders is as follows:

KENTUCKY TRAINING GROUNDS GOSSIP.

Louisville, Ky., April 5.—The eight two-year-olds that F. A. Forsythe has in training at Churchill Downs are as promising a juvenile-lot as the owner of Dorante ever sent out from his Fountainblue Stud in Mercer County. There is hardly one of the lot that has not already been three-eighths in as good as 37\(\tilde{e}\) this spring, and last week nearly every one of the youngsters worked a quarter in as good as 24 or better.—These, with four youngsters befouging to C. 4. Harrison, will embrace the string trainer Colston will campaign in the east this season. Trainer Colston will campaign in the east this season. Trainer Colston will campaign in the east this season. Trainer Colston will have sixteen horses to ship east after the Kentucky Derby, these being twelve two-year-olds. Waldo, the four-year-old fillies Twillight Queen and Berry Maid, and the noted five-year-old Dorante. One of the Harrison youngsters, likely Meridian, and two of the Forsythe two-year-olds will be taken to Lexington to run in the Breeders Futurity.

Colston requested Will Shelley to reserve five stalls for him at the Kentucky Association track for these youngsters, but the trainer was silent as to Waldo filling his engagement in the Camden Handicap. That is up to the owner of the great son of Planucks. If he finally says go to Lexington Waldo will run in the big race there regardies of the weight that may be assigned him by Handicapper Shelley. The two-year-olds in the Forsythe-Harrison stable at Churchill Downs are:

Property of C. L. Harrison—Meridian, b. c, by Broomstick—Sue Smith: Aviator, b, c, by Broomstick—Flocarline: Mindinette, b, f, by Garry Hermann—Vivandiere.

Property of F, A. Forsythe—Shooting Spray, b, c, by Oddfellow—Flow—Sallie McAllister: Corsair, b, c, by Oddfellow—Intermezo; Aleppo, b, c, by Filigrane—Moua.

The colt Royal Eagle and the filly Dewberry are said to be the pair that will carry the Forsythe colors in the Breeders' Futurity at Lexington. The railbirds at Churchill Downs, It is not what he has done but what admirers. He is a half-brother to The Picket, the brilliant horse that Carroll B. Reid trained for Karl Jungbluth, and with which he won both the American Derby and Brooklyn Handicao. Reid thought The Picket should have won the Suburban Handicap when Hermis ran his sparkling race in that great event. The other day at Churchill Downs he said that Hermis had all the luck in the Suburban, while The Picket was interfered with several times during the running of the race. "I think with everything even that day Kinley Mack would not stand out as the only winner of both the Suburban and Brooklyn Handicaps—The Picket would have tied him for such an honor," said he. Volthorpe will be seen under colors in the Bashford Manor Stakes.

While J. B. Respess, who won the Kentucky Derby last year with Wintergreen, has no entry in the big race this season, he has a good-looking filly in Imprudent, which has qualified for the Kentucky Oaks. She is a daughter of Dick Welles and Lunette.

A friend of Capt. J. Breckeuridge Viley of Stonewall Farm, who was at Churchill Downs yesterday, says that Captain Viley's Kentucky Derby candidate, Melbourne, is training superbly this spring. He saw him work five furlongs in 1:02s recently. The Meltonian gelding is being trained by Rolla Drake, a trotting horse reinsman who is making his debut as a thorougnored trainer this season.

INTEREST INCREASING AT JAMESTOWN.

Norfolk, Va., April 5.—Notwithstanding the small fields, there was a still further increase in the attendance at the Jamestown Jockey Club's track this afternoon. An additional book went on today and there are more layers on the grounds ready to cut in as soon as the fields increase in size. Two carloads of horses were shipped here from Jacksonville this morning and a contingent is on the way from Benning.

Secretary Gerhardy read the riot act to owners and trainers today and henceforth good cause will have to be shown before they will be permitted to scratch their horses. The card today was greatly reduced by scratches. Out of thirty-four entries, thirteen were withdrawn. In the first race Racebrook delayed the start twenty-five minutes by crazy anties at the post. After throwing jockey Lang several times and running all over the enclosure, he was withdrawn. The Hatfield stable won two races with John Carroll and old Grenade, while David Dunlop also captured two with Bendaga and Takahira.

Form followers again fared well, four out of five first choices winning.

In followers again fared well, four out of five choices winning. Two of them, Bob Co. and Carroll, were at prohibitive odds. The former ied the short price by winning easily, but John II had to be ridden out and gave his backers a scare.

Tomorrow and also Friday will be ladies' days at the track and should the weather hold good, record attendances are expected.

P. McKenna and Mort Lynch were among a delegation of New Yorkers that got in today. They all predict big things for the Jamestown fall meeting.

MORE ARRIVALS AT PIMLICO.

Baltimore, Md., April 5.—The horses of the Prospect Stable, owned by G. A. Bronder, and trained by Robert Boyle, have arrived from winter quarters at Benning. So have the horses in the public stable trained by Jerry Murphy. Boyle has three of the best steeplechasers that will be raced over the eastern and Canadian tracks during the coming summer. He has Waterway. Thistledale and Daera, all windless of stakes last season. Boyle expects much of them, as in their early work at Benning they displayed faultless form. Boyle is particularly pleased with Thistledale, which Mr. Bronder purchased from J. W. Colt last fall. The giant son of Knight of the Thistle never appeared in better physical condition and Boyle is confident that the old horse will come back this year and be just as good as ever. Though rather small, Waterway is a good as ever. Though rather small, Waterway is a good account of himself. Smoker has been displaying a lot of his old-time speed in his early work.

The most distinguished thoroughbred in the lot in charge of Murphy is Faust, once owned by the late Capt. S. S. Brown. Faust is a brown gelding by Mirthful—Imp. The aged gelding's long rest has seemingly done him a lot of good. Others in the Murphy stable are Margaret, Peep In and Peep, the last two being jumpers. Steeplechase jockey E. Huppe, who rode for J. W. Colt last season, came over from Benning with Murphy and will ride his jumpers here.

Anthony Allen, trainer for W. M. Kerr, who races under the name of Mr. McMurtrie, came from Philadelphia with nearly a dozen horses, headed by Algie, a Pinilico favorite. Among the others that Allen will get ready are Bersi, Dromedary, Middleburg and Barson.

Is Jockey W. Walker, has arrived from his home in St. Louis. He is doing the riding for R. J. Walden, of Middleburg, Md., who will race a big string, walker has been oddered to report to the Middleburg horseman at his farm on April S to work the horses in chosen seready to race, among them St. Abe. It is hardly probable that Cave Adsum, the best horse in the barn of William Jennings, of Mt. Washington, will stand training. He is on the verge of a breakdown, having pulled up lame in his last four or five work-outs. Jennings still has hopes of bring ing him about all right, but if he is not successful, he will retire him to the stud.

Showing no ill effects of the journey the racing stable of John F. Bartlett, the local turfman, arrived at Pimlico from Jacksonville. The horses came in charge of Walter Congdon, who trained the string with success at Moncreif Park.

The jumper Waterway worked three-quarters in 1:17, Thistledale ran the same distance in 1:174, fighting for his head. Dacra, from the same stable, worked three-quarters in 1:22.

NOT OPERATIVE UNTIL SEPTEMBER.

Men interested in the racing outlook say that no one can foresee the fate of the latest bills introduced at Albany prohibiting oral bookmaking. They are thankful, lowever, that even if the bills should become law they will not become operative until September 1, according to their own provisions. From April 15 to August 31 inclusive there will be 419 days of racing on New York tracks, during which many valuable stakes will be decided. At Saratoga alone it is expected that a quarter of a million dollars will be hung up for competition. At Belmont Park, Gravesend, Sheepshead Bay, Brighton Beach and Empire City there will be offered for competition more than $600,000.

At the early meeting at Aqueduct, which will include the Jamaica dates, there will be $120,000 offered to horsemen, an average of $5,000 a day. Thus nearly one million dollars is in sight for horse owners, so that they do not feel as depressed as was the case in 1908, when the anti-betting bills took effect on the day they passed—June 11. Meantime there is a feeling in the minds of many that racing will not suffer as much this year as some seemed to fear.—New York Herald.

NO STEEPLECHASING AT AQUEDUCT.

No STEPPLECHASING AT AQUEDUCT.

New York, April 5.—There will be no steeplechasing at the meeting of the Queens County Jockey Club at Aqueduct, which opens the eastern racing season April 15. The Aqueduct field has an excellent steeplechase course, but the officials believe they could not expect to get good racing over the obstacles while their meeting is running in opposition to that at Pinlico. The Pimlico program provides for at least one steeplechase a day, and this inducement will probably attract all of the cross-country horses that are ready to race.

The book for the Aqueduct meeting was issued today. It provides for twelve days' racing. The sport is to begin at 2:30 each day and the purses for the overnight races are $400 and $500 added. Seventy-two races are listed—none of them at a greater distance than a mile. It is usual that the distances should be short in the early spring meetings.

JOCKEY NICOL DISCIPLINED

LEADING RIDER FINED AND SUSPENDED FOR ROUGH WORK AT MONCREIF.

Dissatisfaction Over Failure of Officials to Award Race to Quagga by Disqualification of Yama.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 5.—R. L. Thomas' sprinter, Flying Squirrel, scored another victory at Moncreif Park this afternoon. It was his second start at this meeting and he prevailed in impressive fashion over a band of useful three-year-olds. He was ridden by Dave Nicol, who also rode the two preceding winners. Nicol was to have remained here until Saturday to ride for the Thomas stable, but probably will leave for Baltimore tomorrow to join the Shaw stable. The change in Nicol's plans came after the running of the second race, in which he had the mount on Thomas' Rusticana. When the break came in this race Nicol cut across from the outside and interfered with some of those close to the rail, for which he was fined $150 and suspended for one week by the starter.

If Nicol's offense was bad, Wilson's in the closing dash was worse. The latter rode Yama, which was leading by three lengths entering the homestretch in the final furlong, when Quagga closed on him. Wilson pulled over and shut Quagga off at the sixteenth post, forcing Ganz to pull up and go to the outside. Quagga responded with good courage when he got clear and was gaining on the winner at the end. Ganz promptly entered the judges' stand after he weighed in to claim foul and was informed by the officials that they had noted the occurrence. Wilson was then sent for, and after a long talk with the lad the official sign was lowered without any change in the placing. The occurrence, to say the least, was far from pleasing to the backers of Quagga. This, together with the defeat of the oddson choices, Jack Parker and Tom McGrath, tended to make the afternoon's sport unsatisfactory.

There were several sales during the afternoon, among them Gold Dust, which was sold by J. Blake to Mrs. M. Goldblatt, and Dr. Frank, which was transferred by Jay Cook to J. P. Brown.

J. McLaughlin, Jr., shipped Amm Kate and Miss Fopular to Jamestown this afternoon, and A. J. Gorey shipped Old Honesty to Latonia.

PENSACOLA HAS INTERNAL DISSENSION.

Pensacola. Fla., April 5.—Threatening weather accounted for a big slump in the attendance this afternoon, made speculation stagnant, and the sport, already devoid of feature, uninteresting. The management, because of prevailing conditions, incurred the biggest loss of the meeting. Several more days of a similar kind will cause a speedy abandonment of the racing here. That the association is, however, sanguine of ultimate success, is evidenced by the fact that they made application this afternoon to the Southern Jockey Club for an extension of twelve days of racing. The original allotment ends next Thursday.

days of racing. The original allotment ends next Thursday.

Internal dissension, caused by W. H. Bickers' meddlesome tactics, is rife and in all probability whatever interest he may have in the plant will be bought by Messrs. Rouprich and Middleton. They refuse to give Bickers a voice in the plant will be bought by Messrs. Rouprich and Middleton. They refuse to give Bickers a voice in the management and unless he positively remains in the background the meeting may be abandoned. Bickers became involved in an altercation with a race follower last night and was arrested, but the case was not prossed this morning. Bickers is willing to sell his interest in the track, but at a rather exorbitant figure. The Pensacola people want to see the meeting carried on, and are willing to support liberally a meeting of good class.

Jockey Irvin's faulty ride on Dunvegan and his escape with a reprimand was the chief incident attending the racing this afternoon.

Because of many withdrawals the original third race' was declared off and another race substituted.

AMERICAN HORSES WIN AT NOTTINGHAM.

Young horses bred in this country and taken to England raced successfully at the recent Nottingham meeting. The very first race of the meeting fell to H. Hartigan's three-year-old bay colt Shrubb, by Griffon-Beneme, by Ben Strome, he defeating ten competitors and starting at 6 to 1. On the second day Mr. Whitney's Hamburg-Regalta gelding ran third to Saracen Princess and the Australian Star-Eightsom filly in the Witford Selling Plate for two-year-olds, eighteen starting; Mr. Belmont's Hasty Pudding won the Bestwood Park Plate, for which fifteen contended, with Hasty Pudding favorite at 3½ to 1: Mr. Butler's bay colt, Slatin Pasha, by Slave-My Fate, won the Robin Hood Plate for two-year-olds at a half mile, defeating nineteen others and being a 7 to 1 cholee; Mr. Belmont's Norman III. ran second to Duddun in the Newark Plate at a mile, conceding the winner twenty-five pounds and defeating thirteen others, and Mr. Naon's three-year-old chestnut colt, King Star, by Kingston—Starlight, defeated nine opponents in the Sherwood Selling Plate at three-quarters in such easy style that he was bid up and sold to Mr. A. Stedall for $2,000. Shrubb and Slatin Pasha were bred by Mr. J. B. Haggin and King Star by Mr. J. R. Keene, all being sold at auction as yearlings at the Newarket sales.

ALLEGED OVERCHARGE ON SHIPMENTS.

Lexington, Ky., April 5.—The charge is made by local owners of horses at Jacksonville that the express company at that point demands that payment be made for transportation for every attendant with horses leaving there. It is claimed that the present printed tariff provides for six attendants free with each car of horses and that under the rules of the Interstate Commerce Commission any notice of change must first be sanctioned by the commission and published for sixty days before it goes into effect.

It is alleged that this has not been done. Local owners have advised their trainers to pay their transportation as demanded and then file a claim with the Interstate Commerce Commission for a refund. The rate from Jacksonville to Lexington is $400 per car and the amount extra demanded for transportation of attendants is $29 per man.

WATERBURY'S HORSES IN ENGLAND

L. Waterbury, the skillful American polo player, bought several of the American yearlings sold by auction at Newmarket last year and as two-year-olds they are now trained by H. S. Persee at Chattis Hill, Stockbridge. They have been named and are the following:

Spiked, b. g, by Meddler—Gunfire, Congo H. b. g, by Meddler—Reina.
Halley, b. c, by Star Ruby—Tradition.

JUVENILE DECLARATIONS IN EAST.

JUVENILE DECLARATIONS IN EAST.

New York. April 5.—Among the Keene two-year-olds declared from the Tremont, Great American and other valuable stakes to be decided at Gravesend in the spring are Candidate and County Chairman, sons of Voter, out of Mintcake and Climax; Rake, a gelding by Wild Mint, out of Lady Gay, and Absconder, a son of Disguise and Swiftfoot.

The Newcastle Stable's declarations from the same stakes are Zeus, the Adam—Shaft colt; North-umberland, the Ben Strome—The Humber colt, and Bashti, the Adam—Disadvantage filly.

Richard T. Wilson, Jr.'s declarations are the Plaudit—Ondurdis colt, the Plaudit—Vankee Sister filly, the Disguise—Editha filly and the Yankee—Geean Tide colt. The Yankee Sister colt is called Mystic River. The Editha colt is called Phantasque.

Harry Payne Whitney's declarations are the Hermis—Braw Lass gelding and the Sandringham or Hamburg—Flesole gelding. John E. Madden has withdrawn his $5,000 Adam—Roman Gold colt, and Robert Forsythe Little his Wild Mint—Jennie McCabe colt.

August Belmont's one declaration is Flint Rock, a bay son of Rock Sand and Flzgig. Charles L. Harrison has withdrawn Meridian, a son of Broomstick and Sue Smith.

Last fall after the yearling trials some of these youngsters were classed among the cracks of their respective stables. Mr. Keene liked Candidate immensely and Mr. Harrison made no secret of his belief that Meridian would clean up the smartest youngsters out this year.

Mr. Keene's declarations from the Great Trial at Sheepshead Bay are the Voter—Minteake colt (Wild Mint—Pink Domino colt (Sweep's half-brother). The Adam—Roman Gold colt, which has been named Goldbeater, cost Mr. Madden $5,000 last fall at the sale of William O'B. Macdonough's Ormondale yearlings. He was a handsome yearling in many respects and his trials were eminently satisfactory.

Mr. Keene's declarations from the Double Event are the Minteake colt and the Cironella and Cap and Bells filles and a colt by Voter out of Gingham, called Spin. Mr. Belmont has withdrawn Via Ocnon

AT WORK ON NEWMARKET HEATH.

Saturday, the most important day for work of the week, has been an unfortunate one almost since last August, and rain or snow has chosen that day with most provoking regularity. It prevented many stripped gallops just before Lincoln, and it quite destroyed what would have been an interesting time last week. There were not many City and Suburban horses on view, but R. Marsh gave Minoru a good gallop of a mile, whilst Princesse de Galles, which may prove the Jubilee candidate at a later date, went that distance at a steadier pace with Perla, and Orellius, Capture, and Perrier also went a mile at a good pace. Sir Martin did not come under observation, but would doubtless do his usual six furlongs somewhere up Choke Jade. Strickland was galloping seven furlongs at half speed and this morning be went with more dash than usual in a good stripped seven furlongs, so that we wondered if he really meant to turn over a new leaf.

Sir Martin galloped a mile and a quarter on Sunday, and Brewer's Sealed Orders was also at work on that day, whilst Arranmore resumed fast work this morning after a few casy days and moved well; but Minoru and Sir Martin are good horses and are certain to take some beating if trained for that particular race.

Mr. Gilpin sent Admiral Hawke a faster gallop over a mile and a quarter than he has yet been, with Gallantry and Prairie Fire, and led by the useful old tutor, Armourer. There is every reason to be satisfied with the progress made by Admiral Hawke and Gallantry and, though Moyglare is a very grand-looking half-sister to Electra and Siberia, there is just a possibility of her top being too heavy for her legs. In a gallop over a mile and a quarter with Sibkaree, the pace was not so fast, and her preparation will require to be longer and stendier than that of Gallantry, Electra, in the Jublice, went very well in a similar gallop with Verney and queen of the Plains gelding, but she, like several other Jublice and that for fast and the particular particular says and the might be wise never to ba

ODDS ON ENGLISH RACES.

New York, April 5.—The latest quotations on leading turf events in England show that while Lemberg is still favorite for the Derby, to be run June I, he has gone up to 7 to 2 from 3 to 1. Neil Gow remains steady at 4 to 1. Admira! Hawke is at 8, with 19 to 1 against Greenback and Tressady, 12 to 1 against Imprenable, Merry Jack and Rochester, 14 to 1 against Charles O'Malley, 16 to 1 against San Antonio, 20 to 1 against H. P. Whitney's Witchwork and Maid of Corinth,

For the Great Metropolitan Stakes, to be run April 19, there are six equal first choices at the quoted price of 10 to 1, Admiral Togo 111., Claretol, Islington Green, Laughing Mirror. Pretiva and Stormfinch. For the Kempton Park Great Jubilee the favorites are Cinderello. Dandy Prat, Hayden, Llangwan, Symons' Pride and Tressady, each at 12, but Sir Martin, Minoru, Princesse de Galles, Primer, The Story, Succour, Valens, Christmas Daisy and Mustapha are in niuch favor, too.

SIRES OF TWO-YEAR-OLD WINNERS.

Ornament in the Lead with Cesarion but Slightly Behind in Contest for Honors of 1910.

The termination of the first three months of 1910 racing finds the stallion Ornament in the lead for the distinction of furnishing the greatest number of two-year-old winners this season, with Cesarion a close second. Six of the get of Ornament have won nine races and $2,800, against seven races and $2,540 won by five of the get of Cesarion. The Commoner, one of three stallions that are represented by four winners each, leads in respect to money earned, his get having won nine races and $3,910. The get of Martinet have won $2,895 and eleven races out of eighteen starts, a highly creditable showing. Following is the list of those stallions that were represented by two or more juvenile winners in the racing of the first three months of the year:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The distance of face 88788 at Jamestown Monday was about 1 1-2 miles, instead of about 2 miles, as previously printed.

The three Perkins anti-oral bookmaking bills were advanced to the order of final passage in the New York assembly yesterday after a motion to recom-mit them had been defeated by a vote of 45 to 70. The Prix d'Orgeval, selling, value $600, run at Maisons-Laffitte in France yesterday, was won by Eugene Fischof's Indian Prince. The Prix Lagrange, for three-year-olds, value $8,000, was won by W. K. Vanderbilt's Messidor HI.

Archie Zimmer, who has returned to New York from Jacksonyille, thinks that Jack Atkin has the Carter Handicap at his mercy if dry going prevails. He considers that trainer Powers has the noted son of Sain at the height of his form and he says that the horse has recovered his dash at the barrier, lack of which was a feature of his racing last season.

Carainer James Rowe worked some of the James R. Keene two-year-olds quarters and three-eighths at Sheepshead Monday. Forbidden Fruit and Spin Love went a quarter in 25 without much effort, Katonah, Candidate, Black Friar, County Chairman, Absconda and Ruanymeady appear to be the best in the colt division. This set galloped three-eighths in Indian file in 43.

NEIL GOW IN THRIVING CONDITION.

I have seen a good deal of Neil Gow lately since getting to better work alongside the Ditch, and I consider that he could not possibly have done better. He has grown into a very fine horse, although just a little on the feg, perhaps; but he has beautiful, strong quarters, back and shoulders, and with a little more bone below the knee he would be well-nigh perfect of his type. That he is a good horse is certain, and if he fails to win the chief classic events it will be through temper. He has been a little bit funny lately, and after cantering on Wednesday he showed by slight attempts at rearing and coming round that he was not going back until he wished. As he gets into stronger work and becomes thoroughly fit, this may disappear, though there is a chance, on the other hand, that he may get worse after a race. Neil Gow is a big horse, with a fine, long stride, and if he only gets off it will take a real good three-year-old to beat him.—"Warren Hill" in Sporting Life.
